

STATE SUPPORT

SOCIALLY RESPONSIBLE EMPLOYERS

Improving the quality of life of the population of any territory depends directly on their employment, guaranteeing a high percentage of which the implementation of a competent social policy in the region must be guaranteed.

Promotion of job creation with high productivity, safe working conditions and decent wages, expansion of job opportunities for young people, women with children, people with disabilities, retraining and advanced training of women on child care leave, directly in the 'organization, legalization of work, improvement of information of the population on the labor market and job opportunities are absolute priorities of the social and economic social development of the Volgograd region in the present and the future.